REPORT NO.

1. Nicaraguan revolutionists have declared that according to the timetable for the Caribbean revolutionary movement, they will celebrate Christmas in Managua, and invade Honduras immediately afterward, without waiting to consolidate their gains in Nicaragua.
2. After the capture of Tegucigalpa, the Legion will invade Ciudad Trujillo. Mopping up of resistance in the three areas will take place in the reverse orders: Ciudad Trujillo, Tegucigalpa, Managua.
3. The Legion now has a surplus of material, and there have been proposals to transfer some of it to the Honduran campaign at once, to make it simultaneous with the Nicaraguan operation. These proposals have not received top level approval however.
4. The Legion forces now have port facilities on the Atlantic in Guatemala.
5. Although there is no confirmatory report, it is known that forty-five men were to have been transported in two planes from Costa Rica to Guatemala on 17 November.
